Kentucky Bourbon

Bulleit

Hailing from Kentucky, the heart of bourbon country, this is a rather splendid example, finished in vintage port casks.

- Nose Orange, flaky pastry, cinnamon sticks and fresh vanilla pods.
- Palate Creamy vanilla, cedar spice and the start of red berry sweetness, followed by a caramel top note.
- Finish Chocolate, red grape, herbs.

Irish Blend

Writer's Tears

A light, sweet Irish whiskey made using a mix of single Copper pot still and single malt whiskeys, resulting in honeyed, fruity notes.

- Nose Soft, sweet honey, granary toast.
- Palate Honey, mellow notes of vanilla and golden malt.
- Finish Warming, sweet and long.

Jameson

A blended Irish whiskey. Triple distilled, twice as smooth, one of a kind.

- Nose A light floral fragrance.
- Palate Spicy, nutty and vanilla notes with hints of sweet sherry.
- Finish Smooth and lingering.

The Singleton 12-Year-Old

A relaunched Singleton, this time from Dufftown, to replace the now-defunct Singleton of Auchroisk.

This smooth, mellow dram is designed to attract new drinkers to the malt category.

- Nose Approachable and rich. Polished wood and nuts dominate, then rich fruits take over with soft brown sugar.
- Palate Sweetness and crunchy nuts impress at first, then there's a smooth, fruity richness to enjoy.
- Finish Medium to long. Elegantly drying and crisp with a delayed warmth.
